Dear Members,

Welcome to the Richard Linn chapter of the American Inns of Court!

Thank you for your commitment to promoting professionalism, ethics, and civility in the practice of intellectual property law. It is you, the members, that make this organization unique by bringing your experience, knowledge, personality, and enthusiasm for the practice of intellectual property. We appreciate your contributions and are happy to have you all as members.

We are also honored by the active participation of so many members of the federal judiciary, including the Honorable Thomas Durkin, Rebecca Pallmeyer, Matthew Kennelly, Virginia Kendall, John Kness, James Holderman (retired), and our namesake, Richard Linn.

I am proud to serve as the President of the Inn for the 2023-2024 program year. I first truly felt like I was part of the Chicago IP community when I got to know the members of this Inn. The friendships, mentor relationships, and knowledge I gained here gave me confidence in the courtroom and while advising my clients. I encourage all of you to take advantage of all that the Inn has to offer. Here are a few tips to help you get involved.

We encourage you to take part in as many Inn events as your schedule allows. We will have our monthly program meetings, but also occasional social events. When attending events, be friendly and welcoming. The Inn is filled with wonderful people who are also accomplished IP practitioners. Get to know them and learn from them.

Participate actively in our programming. The Inn has always valued attendance at our monthly meetings because it is important for building the Inn community. This year, although we will continue to offer a virtual option for all of our programming (except for the Advocacy Challenge), we have implemented an additional requirement that members attend three meetings in-person. Because it is the relationships that make the Inn, the Board and I decided that it was important to encourage everyone to attend the meetings in person as much as you can. Our program chairs have selected a broad range of IP topics for this year's programming that will be both timely and informative. Information regarding our meetings will be located on the Linn Inn website (www.linninn.org). You can also direct questions to our program chairs, Emily Kappers and Tasha Gerasimov.

You have been assigned to a pupillage group and your group will have responsibility for planning one of the program meetings. This is a core part of Inn membership—allowing members the chance to learn about a new topic, share expertise, develop friendships, and gain experience presenting to the full membership.

In addition to the informal mentoring that the Inn provides, we also have a formal mentoring program that allows three Inn members at varying experience levels to learn from one another and share their wisdom, experience, and advice. Craig Leavell has already assigned mentoring triads to new members and those who have expressed interest, but it is never too late to get involved!

The Inn also now supports two scholarships. The Mark T. Banner scholarship and the Honorable Arlander Keys scholarship promote the Inn's goals of fostering the development of intellectual property lawyers of high ethics, civility, and professionalism, and especially those from diverse backgrounds. We encourage you to participate in the scholarship fundraisers and to donate directly via the Inn's website.

Looking ahead, our Holiday party will take place on Wednesday, November 29 at A Little Toasted. Many of you may remember this wonderful venue from last year and we hope you will join us there again. A huge thanks to Luiz Miranda for getting everything finalized so we can all mark our calendar and plan to attend a lovely evening of fellowship and fun!

I'm honored to serve as your president and look forward to another successful Inn year.

Sincerely,

Julianne M. Hartzell

Meeting Dates and Logistics

I. Monthly Meetings

The Linn Inn generally meets once a month from September through May. Meetings are held at either the offices of a hosting law firm or the Everett McKinley Dirksen Federal Building. This program year, we endeavor to host in-person meetings with a Zoom option for most meetings for those who cannot join us live. Please note that this year, in addition to our requirement that members attend at least five of the eight monthly meetings, we also have imposed a requirement that members attend at least three meetings in-person to help build and maintain relationships within the Inn, particularly after a few years of being all or mostly remote.

Meetings are typically on weekdays and generally follow the schedule below:

5:30-6:00: Check-In
6:00-7:00: Program
7:00-8:30: Reception/Networking

A board member, program chair, or Linn Inn administrator will circulate an email to all members approximately one week before each meeting. The email will contain specifics about the meeting location, time, and program. Members must RSVP for each meeting according to the instructions in the email. Given the above variability, please be sure to check each meeting invite carefully for the time and location of each meeting.

A. Monthly Meeting Dates

The monthly meetings for the 2023-2024 year are currently scheduled for:

Thursday, September 21, 2023
Thursday, October 12, 2023
Wednesday, November 15, 2023
No meeting in December
Thursday, January 25, 2024
February meeting TBD
Wednesday, March 13, 2024

Thursday, April 11, 2024 (tentative)
Thursday, May 9, 2024

B. Meetings Held at the Dirksen Building

One or more monthly meetings for the 2023-2024 year may be held at the Dirksen Building at 219 South Dearborn Street. Due to building security requirements, members must arrive before 6:00 p.m. and have government issued identification in order to enter the building. Receptions following meetings held at the Dirksen Federal Building are held at a different location. Business formal attire (business suit) is required. Please check the program schedule for details.

C. Attire

Business casual attire is appropriate for all in-person monthly meetings, except for meetings hosted at the Court (e.g., advocacy challenge), for which business formal attire (business suit) is required.

D. RSVP and Guests

The Executive Committee developed an RSVP and guest policy for Program Meetings to better serve the Members of the Linn Inn. In developing this policy, the Committee carefully considered increasing venue size constraints, food/beverage budgets, and fairness and comfort to Members and guests. This policy includes reminders of Inn rules. Please review the policy and feel free to contact any Executive Committee member if you have any questions.

- All Linn Inn Members must RSVP 24-hours in advance of Program Meetings according to the Program Meeting email invitation.
- A Member may bring only four guests per Program Year.
  - For example, the Member could do any of the following:
    - Bring four guests to one meeting;
    - Bring the same guest to four different meetings; or
    - Bring four different guests to four different meetings.
- The Host Member must RSVP for the guest in advance of the Program Meeting.
- Either the Host Member or the guest can pay the guest fee at the registration table. The fee is $25 payable by cash or check. A reduced $15 guest fee is due for student guests. Checks should be made payable to the “Richard Linn American Inn of Court.” The guest fees are contributed to the Linn Inn Scholarship Fund.
- Guests do not receive CLE credit.
- The Host Member must attend the meeting the guest attends.

- At a Program Meeting, an Officer may invite the Host Members to introduce a First Time Guest at the Inn Meeting. At that time, the Host Member should stand up with the First Time Guest and give a very short introduction of the Guest – name, firm/affiliation, one line summary of practice, relationship or stand-out fact about the Guest.

The Executive Committee appreciates your cooperation in following this policy so that we can enhance our members' experience at Program Meetings. Most importantly, please RSVP before each meeting and identify any guests you intend to bring in advance so that we can plan for an accurate headcount for seating and food/drink. We welcome feedback on this policy at the end-of-year survey.

Please note that for virtual meetings, the Inn waives the guest fees and does not limit the number of guests who can attend. Instead, we encourage members or guests to donate to one of our scholarship funds.

E. CLE Credit

CLE credit is available for all monthly programs for active Linn Inn members, including one meeting each year for which ethics credit is available. Note that starting this year, if we do not timely receive a completed form and dues payment by the time of the first meeting, you will not be considered a member of the Inn for this program year and will not receive CLE credit for any programs attended. Each member wishing to receive CLE credit must sign the attendance sheet and provide an ARDC number in order to receive credit. Within approximately two weeks of each program, the CLE chair will send each member a Certificate of Attendance for the program. Each member should sign the record of attendance and keep it for three years after the end of the relevant two year CLE reporting period. In the event the member is audited by the Illinois MCLE Board, the member may be required to submit the record of attendance.

F. Name Tags

Each Inn member will receive a reusable plastic name badge, which must be worn at meetings. Name badges should be returned to the administrators following each meeting for safekeeping. A $25 fee is required for lost name tags and may be paid via cash or check to the Linn Inn administrator(s) at the beginning of one of the monthly meetings or via mail at the address listed on the "Officers and Administrators" tab below.

II. Annual Holiday Party

The Linn Inn often hosts a holiday party in lieu of a December meeting and information about this event is typically announced prior to the November monthly meeting. The holiday party this year will take place on Wednesday, November 29, 2023.

III. Annual Dinner

The Linn Inn typically hosts an annual black tie dinner each summer. Invitations for the dinner are typically sent in the spring.

Member Responsibilities

Members are reminded that membership in the Linn Inn is, at all times, at the discretion of the Executive Committee at any time.

Attendance: Each Pupil, Associate, Government, In-House, Academic, Barrister and Bencher member must attend at least five of the eight monthly meetings during the 2023-2024 program year. This year, there is an additional requirement of in-person attendance for at least three out of the five required sessions. If a member is unable to attend at least five meetings, with three being in-person, membership may, at the Board's discretion, not be renewed the next year to allow room for more active members. Such member will be allowed to provide an explanation for a failure to attend the required number of meetings. Emeritus members are exempt from the meeting minimum requirements, but should sign in at each meeting that is attended to receive CLE credit.

Pupilage Group Participation: Members should participate in preparing their pupilage group's presentation. Pupilage group participation will be a consideration when membership is evaluated each year.

Dues: Members must pay annual dues before the first meeting of each September-May term. Dues should be sent to the Linn Inn Treasurer with the "Membership & Dues Form" located at page 13 of this Handbook. Alternatively, payment may be made online at <http://www.linninn.org/Member/>

Contact Information: Members should notify the Membership Chair of any change in address, phone number, facsimile number or email address.

Charitable Activities: Each year, the Linn Inn endeavors to select a charitable initiative to undertake with volunteer time and financial support. For example, the Inn spearheaded the creation of the "American Dream" playroom in the Dirksen Courthouse, to provide a safe play space for young children whose loved ones are participating in a naturalization ceremony. Your participation in these activities is encouraged.

Chambers Chat: In the 2019-2020 program year, the Linn Inn Executive Committee established the Chambers Chat program, directed to the more junior members of the Inn. Please note that due to the success of the program, we can now open it up to even our more seasoned members. Please do not hesitate to sign up, irrespective of your years in practice.

AIC Platinum Award: Each year, the American Inns of Court Foundation awards a select number of inns to receive Platinum level status, representing the highest level of inn excellence. The Linn Inn is a perennial recipient of Platinum status because of its superior programming and other activities. This status reflects the importance of each member's participation according to the foregoing guidelines.

MENTORING

THE RICHARD LINN AMERICAN INN OF COURT MENTORING PROGRAM

One of the purposes of the Richard Linn American Inn of Court is to facilitate the development of private mentoring relationships between members of the Inn outside of the regularly scheduled Inn meetings. To this end, members will generally be grouped into mentoring triads consisting of one senior member (Emeritus or Bencher), one less senior member (Bencher or Barrister) and one junior member (Associate or Pupil). Absent any indication by an Inn member to the contrary, all new members and all other interested members will be assigned to a mentorship group, with the group being completed from the broader Inn membership as needed.

Regular interaction between mentors and mentees is encouraged, and a minimum of four meetings (in person or virtual) is recommended. The junior member (Associate or Pupil) should reach out to their mentor within two weeks of the announcement of their mentorship grouping to schedule a get-acquainted meeting, with subsequent mentoring activities to continue throughout the Inn program year. The Inn welcomes any feedback on the mentorship experience throughout the year and as part of the Inn's end of year survey.

For those interested in a more formal mentorship program eligible for CLE credit, more information is available at www.2civility.org/mentoring/.

To facilitate the assignment of mentorship groups, this form should be completed and submitted to our Mentor Chair, Craig Leavell, who will contact you with your group assignment. If you have any specific requests, please let him know.

Mark T. Banner Scholarship

The Richard Linn American Inn of Court is proud to offer the Mark T. Banner Scholarship. This scholarship is part of The Richard Linn American Inn of Court's commitment to fostering the development of intellectual property lawyers of high ethics, civility and professionalism, and especially those from diverse backgrounds.

Eligibility

Law students who are enrolled in a JD program at an ABA-accredited law school in the United States and who will continue in that program through the Fall semester 2024 are eligible to apply for the Mark T. Banner Scholarship.

Selection Criteria

Scholarship recipients will be selected by the Mark T. Banner Scholarship review board based on the following criteria:

- Commitment to the pursuit of a career in IP law. An ability to demonstrate commitment to the pursuit of a career in IP law is an essential requirement.
- Commitment, qualities and actions toward ethics, civility and professionalism.
- Academic merit (undergraduate, graduate and law school);
- Written and oral communication skills determined in part through a video interview for finalists.
- Leadership qualities and community involvement.
- Member of a historically underrepresented group in IP law (including race, sex, ethnicity, sexual orientation and disability). The applicant should discuss how diversity has impacted their/her/his pursuit of a career in IP law and how the applicant has faced and overcome the challenges associated therewith. Diversity is considered, but is one element among several in the award decision.

Financial Award

The recipient of the Mark T. Banner Scholarship will receive $10,000 payable for their/her/his Fall 2024 semester of law school.

Application Process

Applications will be accepted from now through 5:00 p.m. (CST) on December 1, 2023. The winner will be notified by April 2024, and the award will be announced at the Linn Inn of Court's annual dinner in Summer of 2024. Applicants should submit the following documents as a single PDF format file for consideration:

- Completed Mark T. Banner Scholarship Application Form (this form)
- Resume
- Academic transcripts (law school, undergraduate/graduate school)
- Three-page (maximum) statement describing (a) how ethics, civility and professionalism have been a focus of the candidate; (b) how diversity has impacted the candidate; and (c) the candidate's commitment to the pursuit of a career in IP law; and
- Contact information for three references (this form).

<sup>1</sup> The applicant represents by the applicant's signature that the applicant understands that (a) selections for scholarships by the Inn are final and not subject to review by the American Inns of Court Foundation, (b) all materials submitted by applicants shall become the property of the Linn Inn, for disposal or to be retained as the Linn Inn sees fit, and (c) awards of scholarships shall include Inn press releases, may reveal information about the applicant from the application process, and may become known to the applicants' fellow students, law school faculty and administration, family, friends and others.

Origins of the Mark T. Banner Scholarship

The Richard Linn Inn is a labor of love. The engagement of Inn members in the activities of the Inn gains them not prestige, time, or money, but joys and opportunities. Mark T. Banner, a founding member of the Inn, passed on in the Inn's formative first year, before we had the chance to enjoy his contributions to the Inn at any length. The Inn names its scholarship and awards the scholarship to those who deserve to receive it in the name of Mark T. Banner, however, for many reasons - in honor of his passion in the practice, to accelerate more "Marks" into our field, to help fill the hole his absence leaves behind, and to remind us all, donors and recipients, of not only the tasks of gaining civility, ethics and professionalism in ourselves and others, but also the joys and the opportunity the Linn Inn scholarship surely provides.

The son of a Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, and the youngest in a family of lawyers including four IP lawyers, Mark T. Banner channeled into his IP legal practice all the wit, intellect and passion of an experienced, savvy, fun-loving family who argued IP law at the dinner table. Mark loved life and was a born litigator, with an uncanny ability to phrase memorable, compelling arguments in words of life's experiences, and that drove home key points from complicated legal and factual patterns. He applied his gifts in litigating tirelessly, but also in educating nationally. Once a Chicago Transit Authority bus driver, he taught Patent Trial Advocacy at Georgetown University Law Center using images of buses on city streets, and the message that for best litigators, "All Roads Lead To Trial."

Mark wowed juries. He had a presence at an appellate podium the bench called "astounding." He rose in heated ABA debates to rooms that would quiet because his insightful views would be memorably phrased. His abilities as a teacher were called a "privilege" to experience.

His purposes in teaching lawyers who in the future would compete with him, rather than just devoting himself completely to handling a first-level litigation practice, committing full-tilt to leading high level ABA activities, and always having time for friends, family, and a Rob Roy, he best described himself:

This is a labor of love. ... It has to be. As any adjunct professor of law today knows, teaching ... while engaged in a full-time law practice in today's environment is not something that earns one more prestige with your peers, more time with your family, or more money. What it does earn is the sheer joy of helping younger and eager students progress in their professional development. ... We are grateful for the opportunity ... and most of all to meet and work with the many young professionals who make this labor of love so rewarding.

The teaching of civility, ethics and professionalism that occurs within the Inn is a matter of Mark's labor of love, and naming our Inn scholarship for Mark, we remind ourselves and recipients of the "sheer joy" of right thinkers in "helping younger and eager students progress in their professional development" and "the opportunity" it surely is "to meet and work with the many young professionals who make this labor of love so rewarding."

Diversity

The Linn Inn is a member of the American Inns of Court. The Linn Inn supports and furthers the American Inns of Court Diversity Policy.

The American Inns of Court Diversity Policy<sup>1</sup>

The American Inns of Court Embraces and Encourages Diversity and Inclusiveness.

More than just an organization, the American Inns of Court is the embodiment of an ideal. We are dedicated to upholding the standards of the legal profession, to practicing law with dignity and respect, and to encouraging respect for our system of justice. Achieving a higher level of excellence and developing a deeper sense of professionalism occur only with an abiding commitment to the goals of diversity and inclusiveness.

The American Inns of Court firmly believes that personal diversity in all its aspects is essential to our ability to accomplish our mission. Diversity embodies all those differences that make us unique individuals and includes people of different race, ethnicity, culture, sexual orientation, gender, religion, age, personal style, appearance, physical ability as well as people of diverse opinions, perspectives, lifestyles, ideas and thinking. We value the differences in views and perspectives and the varied experiences that are part of a diverse membership. Diversity enriches and broadens our membership, which in turn leads to more creative and meaningful programs.

For the same reasons, the American Inns of Court values professional diversity. Legal professionals and law school faculty, administrators, and students, from all disciplines, from all practice types, from both the public and private sectors, from all economic strata, and from the least experienced to the most seasoned are vital to maximizing the Inn experience. Only by drawing and retaining a diverse membership will we guarantee the success of our unique organization as well as our respective professional pursuits. Therefore, the American Inns of Court are committed to creating and maintaining a culture that promotes and supports diversity not only throughout our organization, but in our profession as well.

Linn Inn Diverse Members Group

To help promote the AIC's Diversity policy, the Linn Inn introduced a new mentoring group in 2019-2020 to provide further support for members who consider themselves from a diverse background. The group is inclusive of all categories of membership. Please contact the Mentor Chair or Olivia Bedi for more details.

Background

The Linn Inn is a member of the American Inns of Court. When the Linn Inn was founded in January 2007, it was the fifth Inn of Court focused on intellectual property law.

The American Inns of Court<sup>3</sup>

American Inns of Court are designed to improve the skills, professionalism and ethics of the bench and bar. An American Inn of Court is an amalgam of judges, lawyers, and in some cases, law professors and law students. Each Inn meets approximately once a month both to "break bread" and to hold programs and discussions on matters of ethics, skills and professionalism.

Looking for a new way to help lawyers and judges rise to higher levels of excellence, professionalism, and ethical awareness, the American Inns of Court adopted the traditional English model of legal apprenticeship and modified it to fit the particular needs of the American legal system. American Inns of Court help lawyers to become more effective advocates and counselors with a keener ethical awareness. Members learn side-by-side with the most experienced judges and attorneys in their community.

An American Inn of Court is not a fraternal order, a social club, a course in continuing legal education, a lecture series, an apprenticeship system, or an adjunct of a law school's program. While an AIC partakes of some of each of these concepts, it is quite different in aim, scope, and effect.

American Inns of Court actively involve more than 25,000 state, federal and administrative law judges, attorneys, legal scholars and law students. Membership is composed of the following categories: Benchers—judges, experienced lawyers, and law professors; Barristers—lawyers with some experience who do not meet the minimum requirements for Benchers; Associates—lawyers who do not meet the minimum requirement for Barristers; and Pupils—law students. The suggested number of active members in an Inn is around 80.

Most Inns concentrate on issues surrounding civil and criminal litigation practice, and include attorneys from a number of specialties. However, there are several Inns that specialize in criminal practice, federal litigation, tax law, administrative law, white-collar crime, bankruptcy, intellectual property, family law, or employment and labor law.

The membership is divided into “pupilage teams,” with each team consisting of a few members from each membership category. Each pupilage team conducts one program for the Inn each year. Pupilage team members get together informally outside of monthly Inn meetings in groups of two or more. This allows the less-experienced attorneys to become more effective advocates and counselors by learning from the more-experienced attorneys and judges. In addition, each less-experienced member is assigned to a more-experienced attorney or judge who acts as a mentor and encourages conversations about the practice of law.

Mission of the American Inns of Court

The Mission of the American Inns of Court is to foster excellence in professionalism, ethics, civility, and legal skills.

Goals of the American Inns of Court Foundation

- To promote the American Inns of Court mission by encouraging members of the legal profession to participate in an American Inn of Court.
- To help ensure the vitality and continuity of local Inns.
- To communicate a culture of excellence in professionalism, ethics, civility and skills to the legal community and generally.
- To ensure the long-term financial viability and growth of the American Inns of Court.

History of the American Inns of Court

The American Inns of Court concept was the product of a discussion in the late 1970's among the United States' members of the Anglo-American exchange of lawyers and judges, including Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Chief Judge of the Ninth Circuit J. Clifford Wallace. Chief Justice Burger subsequently invited Rex E. Lee (then Dean of the J. Reuben Clark School of Law at Brigham Young University and later United States Solicitor General) and Dallin Oaks (then president of Brigham Young University and later Justice of the Utah Supreme Court) to test the idea.

At the suggestion of Rex Lee, a pilot program was entrusted to Senior United States District Court Judge A. Sherman Christensen, who honed the idea into a feasible concept. The first American Inn of Court was founded in 1980 in the Provo/Salt Lake City area of Utah, and included law students from Brigham Young University. Within the next three years, additional American Inns formed in Utah, Mississippi, Hawaii, New York, and Washington, D.C.

In 1983, Chief Justice Burger created a committee of the Judicial Conference of the United States to explore whether the American Inn concept was of value to the administration of justice and, if so, whether there should be a national organization to promote, establish and assist American Inns, and promote the goals of legal excellence, civility, professionalism and ethics on a national level. The committee reported to the Judicial Conference affirmatively on the two questions and proposed the creation of the American Inns of Court Foundation. The Judicial Conference approved the reports and, thus, endorsed the American Inn concept and the formation of a national structure. In 1985, the American Inns of Court Foundation was formally organized.

The Richard Linn American Inn of Court

Overview of the Linn Inn

The Mission of the American Inns of Court is to foster excellence in professionalism, ethics, civility, and legal skills. The Linn Inn’s focus is on intellectual property law, including copyright, patent, trademark and trade secret law. The Richard Linn American Inn of Court is made up of judges, lawyers, law professors, and law students who meet approximately once a month in Chicago both to “break bread” and to hold programs and discussions on matters of ethics, skills and professionalism surrounding the practice of intellectual property law.

The Inn provides a unique opportunity for members to hone their legal skills in a social setting with no agenda other than collegiality and with a shared interest in professionalism and excellence. It also provides an opportunity for the younger lawyer and student members to gain experience and insight from member judges and experienced lawyers from among the best of the Chicago IP community.

The Linn Inn includes the following categories of members:

Emeritus	34 years of practice or more
Bencher	15 years of practice or more
Barrister	8-15 years of practice
Associate	1-8 years of practice
Pupil	Law Student
Government, In-House, Academic
Retired Emeritus	Retired after 34 years of practice or more

Note: Added in 2017, the non-voting Retired Emeritus Membership category allows our valued retired Emeritus member to receive CLE credits for a reduced fee.

Additional information about the Inn is located on the Richard Linn Inn’s website at www.linninn.org.

History of the Linn Inn

The inaugural meeting of the newly formed Richard Linn American Inn of Court was held on January 18, 2007 at the Everett McKinley Dirksen Building in the ceremonial courtroom hosted by Chief Judge Holderman of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

It was an exciting evening with over one hundred of the most prominent intellectual property attorneys and professors in Chicago. Also in attendance, were special guests from the D.C. area - the Inn's namesake, the Honorable Richard Linn of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, his wife Patti Linn, daughter Debbie Linn, Hal Wegner from Foley & Lardner in D.C., William Herbert from Staas & Halsey in D.C., past president of the Giles S. Rich Inn of Court, David Akridge, Deputy Executive Director and Phyllis Doak, Director - Chapter Relations - Midwest Region from the American Inns of Court Foundation, and Jim Brookshire, Executive Director of the Federal Circuit Bar Association, and his wife Peggy Brookshire.

After Chief Judge Holderman's welcome remarks, the Inn's first president, Meredith Addy, introduced the Inn's founders and officers. An overview of the American Inns of Court Foundation were given by the Deputy Executive Director, David Akridge. Lastly, Judge Linn was presented with the official charter of the Inn and framed remarks written by Chief Judge Michel.

After the ceremonial program, members adjourned to the Union League Club of Chicago for food, drinks, and a presentation on the history of Intellectual Property Law in Chicago presented by Ray Niro, Sr., Harry Roper, and George McAndrews.

Linn Inn Alliance

In joining the Richard Linn American Inn of Court, individuals are also joining a larger intellectual property organization within the Inns of Court umbrella – the Linn Inn Alliance. As first reported in the May/June 2009 issue of The Bench, the Linn Inn Alliance was begun through the work of a dedicated ad hoc committee consisting of Circuit Judge Richard Linn, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, Hal Wegner of Foley & Lardner, and Olivia Bedi of Jenner & Block. The inaugural event for the new Inn Alliance was a reception at the historic Dolley Madison House in Washington D.C. This reception was attended by members of the six then-existing IP Inns of Court, members of the judiciary, and David Carey, Executive Director of the American Inns of Court.

The Linn Inn Alliance serves to extend the excellence of existing IP Inns of Courts to new and emerging ones. The Linn Inn Alliance does so by creating a nationwide network which offers assistance and information between the IP Inns of Court and their members. The Linn Inn Alliance maintains a list of all members of all IP Inns and sends email notices of all meetings to all members (who do not opt out). As one can imagine, visiting an IP Inn of Court meeting at an IP Inn other than the one you belong to could be a unique way in which to develop extended professional relationships or contacts when on travel to a city where a participating IP Inn of Court is located. The Linn Inn Alliance is also working diligently to coordinate the activities of the program chairs of all IP Inns and serves as a central repository of all program materials. Thus, all IP Inns can benefit from the creation of an outstanding program and its materials created within one IP Inn. Lastly, as a corollary to providing e-mail notices of all meetings to all Linn Alliance members, a commitment is made by all participating Inns that each Inn will welcome the attendance of any IP Inn member at all Inn meetings.

As of the start of the 2023-2024 Inn of Court year, twenty-eight IP Inns are participating in the Linn Inn Alliance. They are:

At the inaugural reception for the Linn Inn Alliance, Judge Linn announced his goal of having ten IP Inns as members of the Linn Inn Alliance by the year 2010. The Linn Inn Alliance achieved its “10 by 2010” goal with the establishment of five new inns in the 2009-2010 year. Not content to sit at thirteen, the Linn Inn Alliance continued its outreach efforts in the 2010-2011 year, resulting in the formation of three new inns: the Thomas Jefferson Intellectual Property American Inn of Court in Richmond, Virginia, the Pauline Newman Intellectual Property American Inn of Court in Alexandria, Virginia and the Honorable Barbara M. G. Lynn American Inn of Court in Dallas, Texas. In the 2011-2012 year, five new inns were established. In the 2012-2013 year, an additional five new inns were established, including the Q. Todd Dickinson American Inn of Court in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the Tokyo Intellectual Property American Inn of Court in Tokyo, Japan, the Michigan Intellectual Property American Inn of Court in Detroit, Michigan.

The Richard Linn American Inn of Court is proud to be a part of the Linn Inn Alliance. We look forward to the continued growth of the Linn Inn Alliance and the many benefits it will bring to our Inn and its members, the American Inns of Court, and the IP profession as a whole.

Judge Richard Linn

The Linn Inn is fortunate to have Judge Richard Linn of the United States Court of Appeals as one of its founding members.

Message from Judge Linn<sup>4</sup>

The Richard Linn American Inn of Court is the fifth Inn of Court focused on intellectual property law. It is altogether fitting that the city of Chicago, with its rich history of excellence in intellectual property matters, should have an Inn of its own in this important area of the law. I am humbled and honored that the Inn bears my name, and I am proud to be associated with its outstanding members. I am also pleased with the leadership role the Inn is playing in fostering an alliance with the other IP Inns around the country and in working with leaders of the bar in other cities to form new intellectual property Inns in the future.

Reflections on Judge Linn<sup>5</sup>

By Judge Paul R. Michel

As its President, Circuit Judge Richard Linn led the Washington, D.C. Intellectual Property Inn of Court named in honor of our late colleague, Giles Sutherland Rich, to the 2005 Model of Excellence award as the best Inn in America. He strongly supports the American Inns of Court in its mission to promote civility, professionalism, and excellence in the practice of law, and regularly participates in meetings of the Giles Rich Inn, the IP based Ben Franklin Inn in Philadelphia, and the appellate practice Edward Coke Inn, which meets at the Federal Circuit.

A life-long patent lawyer, a patent examiner, a private practitioner and an electrical engineer, he also served as leader of the electronics practice group of Foley and Lardner's intellectual property department, and prior to that, the leader of the intellectual property practice of Marks & Murase, now part of Bingham McCutchen LLP. He is, in short, a very well-rounded lawyer and judge. The author of major patent decisions, he is well respected by all his colleagues on the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, which he joined in the first minute of the new millennium, January 1, 2000.

In addition to his contributions to the development of the patent law, Judge Linn has contributed to putting the Federal Circuit at the vanguard of automation. For the last two years, he has led the court's Task Force on Information Technology, designing new systems for electronic circulation, commenting and voting on proposed opinions and for electronic filing of briefs by counsel. Both initiatives will be put into operation in 2007.

A leader in the larger intellectual property community and on the court, he is widely-recognized as a down-to-earth man who is good, generous, and great company. I think it is entirely fitting that Judge Linn, who succeeded Judge Giles Rich on the court and who has played and continues to play an active role in the Inn named after Judge Rich, now is honored to have an Inn in his own name. I am confident that it will be a resounding success.

About Judge Linn

Circuit Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit; nominated by President Clinton on September 28, 1999; confirmed by the Senate on November 19, 1999; assumed duties of the office on January 1, 2000; born, Brooklyn, New York, April 13, 1944; B.E.E., Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, 1965; J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, 1969; patent examiner, U.S. Patent Office, 1965-68; patent agent, U.S. Naval Research Laboratory, 1968-69; private practice, specializing in intellectual property litigation, 1970-99; admitted to the Virginia Bar in 1969, the District of Columbia Bar in 1970, and the New York Bar in 1994; member, founding Board of Governors, Virginia State Bar Section on Patent, Trademark and Copyright Law, Chairman, 1975; recipient, Rensselaer Alumni Association Fellows Award for 2000; honored for dedication, service, and devotion to justice in 2006 by the Austin Intellectual Property Law Association; Adjunct Professor and Professorial Lecturer, George Washington University Law School, 2001-03; member, Intellectual Property Advisory Board, George Washington University Law School; past president, Giles Sutherland Rich American Inn of Court 2004-05; member, Richard Linn American Inn of Court.

Judge Linn began his career in intellectual property law in 1965 as an examiner at the U.S. Patent Office while attending evening classes at Georgetown. He worked as an examiner for three years. He then moved to the Office of Naval Research where he wrote and prosecuted patent applications while completing his last year in law school. After receiving his law degree, he continued to prepare and prosecute patent and trademark applications in private practice for about eight years. In 1977, Judge Linn was invited to join the Washington office of Wender, Murase & White as a partner to establish an intellectual property capability in what was essentially a corporate and general business practice firm based in New York City.

At Wender, Murase & White (which later became Marks, Murase & White and then Marks & Murase, L.L.P.), Judge Linn's practice expanded beyond the Patent and Trademark Office to the courts, and he became more involved in the enforcement of intellectual property rights, in the counseling of clients in intellectual property matters, and in the defense of clients charged with violating the intellectual property rights of others. Initially, he counseled the firm's Japanese and European clients on U.S. patent and trademark law and handled a number of trademark matters before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and various U.S. District Courts. He then continued to handle litigation matters, concentrating on patent infringement suits, counterfeit actions and trade secret misappropriation cases. He also represented musical groups and songwriters in royalty dispute and copyright cases. Judge Linn was the head of the intellectual property department for the entire 20 years he was a partner of the Marks & Murase firm. During that time, he acted as lead or senior counsel in over 30 litigations in the United States.

In 1997, he joined Foley & Lardner to manage and direct the Electronics Practice Group of the firm's Intellectual Property Department. At Foley, he continued to concentrate his practice in counseling clients in patent, trademark, and trade secret law. Judge Linn developed a number of programs to assist major corporate clients in complying with intellectual property laws and in managing intellectual property assets. He also rendered opinions in patent and trademark matters and provided strategic guidance to clients in multinational intellectual property disputes. He resigned from the practice of law at the end of 1999.

Prior to taking the oath of office at the stroke of midnight, January 1, 2000, to become the first federal judge of the 21st century, Judge Linn participated in local and national bar association activities and worked as a volunteer for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, serving as a member of the Board in 1994-96, as vice-president for government relations in 1996-98, as president of the Board in 1998-99, and as president-emeritus in 1999.
